Dear Scott,

I'm upstairs in the back of the house, in the beautiful office that you made for me. I can't tell you how much pleasure it gives me just to come here and sit. I look at the elegant job you did framing the windows and doors — and especially the round window in back. And when I go back to the house — what a pleasure it is to live in the place that you created. I know Marilyn is thrilled every day to work in her kitchen, and we have been enjoying the porch in the evenings. It's wonderful to look into the back room and see the beautiful window you created behind the couch. And every time I pass the little bathroom in the back, I think of what a mess it was before... and how good it is now. You really have made our lives so nice. Thank you —

Cordially, Bob
